Jireh--

- Jireh—
- Found in Genesis 22:14
- Is a transliteration of a Hebrew word which means “to see” or “foresee”
- It is often used to refer to certain men who could foresee – prophets
- With God, to see is to foresee. He is alpha and omega; he sees everything from the beginning to the end. When God sees it is prevision. Gods prevision is followed by provision.
- Example Galatians 4:4 But when the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,⁵ To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.

Prevision –

- seeing ahead; knowing in advance; foreseeing
- provision - [Middle English, from Old French, forethought, from Latin prōvīsiō, prōvīsiōn-, from prōvīsus, past participle of prōvidēre, to foresee, provide for; see provide.]

Provision –

- To make ready ahead of time; prepare.
- A compound of two Latin words that mean “to see beforehand”
- To foresee, provide for; see provide.

Thus Jehovah sees becomes Jehovah provides

By naming the place Jehovah Jireh it places a reminder that Jehovah did a great and marvelous work in that place.
